

Ears used to exaggerate expression

Wheat usually goes up and down based on facial expressions

Carrot banjo is used for playing music and for extracurricular activities

Hat maintains general shape without regards to expression or movement

General shape consists of a pear shape
Arms and legs are made up of basic cylindrical shapes
The upper part of the leg comes together to form a cone which represents his hip joint
His head consists of horizontally and vertically placed ovals
Ears and carrot banjo are cylinders with cone ends
Carrot top is a circle with semi-circles for bushy appearance

